PRAYER OF THE DAY

P O God, you have prepared for those who love you joys beyond understanding. Pour into our hearts such love for you that, loving you above all things, we may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

FIRST READING: Jeremiah 28:5-9

The prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD; ⁶and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the LORD do so; may the LORD fulfill the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the LORD, and all the exiles. ⁷But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. ⁸The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. ⁹As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the LORD has truly sent the prophet."

PSALM: Psalm 89:1-4, 15-18

Your love, O LORD, forever | will I sing;*
from age to age my mouth will pro- | claim your faithfulness.

²For I am persuaded that your love is established forever;*

you have set your faithfulness firmly | in the heavens.

³I have made a covenant with my | chosen one;*
I have sworn an oath to Da- | vid my servant:

⁴I will establish your | line forever,*
and preserve your throne for all | generations.'

¹⁵Happy are the people who know the | festal shout!*
They walk, O LORD, in the light | of your presence.

¹⁶They rejoice daily | in your name;*
they are jubilant | in your righteousness.

¹⁷For you are the glory | of their strength,*
and by your favor our might | is exalted.

¹⁸Truly, the LORD | is our ruler;*
the Holy One of Israel | is our king.

SECOND READING: Romans 6:12-23

Do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. ¹³No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. ¹⁴For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

¹⁵What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! ¹⁶Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? ¹⁷But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin,

A We ask for Christ's healing power through our touch, our greetings, and our gifts as we visit the sick and pray with them. We remember them and call them by name (especially). God of love,

C hear our prayer.

Here other intercessions may be offered.

A We await in hope the final and great hospitality of your heavenly banquet, where we will be united with (names, and) all the beloved saints at the feast of your presence. God of love,

C hear our prayer.

P Receive our prayers, holy God, and give us all we need for this day and the days to come, through the power of the Holy Spirit and in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen

have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, ¹⁸and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. ¹⁹I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.

²⁰When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. ²¹So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. ²²But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. ²³For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL: Matthew 10:40-42

[Jesus said to the twelve:] "Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. ⁴¹Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; ⁴²and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple--truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward."

THE PRAYERS

A Gathered, enlightened, and empowered to serve, let us pray for the church, the nations, and all people seeking God's mercy and care.

A brief silence.

A Holy One of Israel, give unity to your church. Guide us to support our bishops, pastors, and other leaders, and keep us all faithful to your word. God of love,

C hear our prayer.

A We pray for continual peacemaking between Israel and its neighbors, and for people in all other parts of the world where tensions exist, that all may welcome and embrace your peace and wholeness. God of love,

C hear our prayer.

A We look to your Spirit to strengthen our wills, that we might offer a cup of water and other blessings in Christ's name in welcome to the stranger and in pledge of our fellowship. God of love,

C hear our prayer.

A We await the opening of our hearts that, as Christ welcomed us, we may welcome the unloved, including refugees and immigrants, those of different races and cultures, and those persecuted or imprisoned. God of love,

C hear our prayer.
