PRAYER OF THE DAY

P Almighty God, whose people are knit together in one holy Church, the body of Christ our Lord: Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen

FIRST READING: Revelation 7:9-17

After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. ¹⁰They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

¹¹And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹²singing,

"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

¹³Then one of the elders addressed me, saying,
"Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" ¹⁴I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

¹⁵For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter
them.

¹⁶They will hunger no more, and thirst no
more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching
heat;

¹⁷for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

PSALM: Psalm 34:1-10, 22

I will bless the LORD | at all times;*
his praise shall ever be | in my mouth.

²I will glory | in the LORD;*

let the humble hear | and rejoice.

³Proclaim with me the greatness | of the LORD;*
let us exalt his | name together.

⁴I sought the LORD, and he | answered me*
and delivered me out of | all my terror.

⁵Look upon him | and be radiant,*
and let not your faces | be ashamed.

⁶I called in my affliction, and | the LORD
heard me

and saved me from | all my troubles.

⁷The angel of the LORD encompasses | those who fear him,*

and he will de- | liver them.

⁸Taste and see that the | LORD is good;*

A Throughout the world, people suffer from injustice, brokenness, and ordeals of every kind. But you call us to a different vision, where there is no more hunger, where you are shelter, and where every tear is wiped away. Let this promised kingdom increase. In your compassion,

C hear us, O God.

A You bestow marvelous gifts upon us, and even call us your children. Make of us one great family of faith, full of compassion for one another, and joyful in the blessings that others receive. In your compassion,

C hear us, O God.

A Guard and protect those in particular need and those who are injured or ill (especially). Restore them to health and wholeness. In your compassion,

C hear us, O God.

Here other intercessions may be offered.

A We give thanks for the great company of saints, whose witness nurtured us in faith and who now rest from their labors. May we join their chorus when our earthly labor is complete. In your compassion,

C hear us, O God.

P Rejoicing in the communion of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, one another, and our whole life to Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen

happy are they who | trust in him!

⁹Fear the LORD, you that | are his saints,*
for those who fear | him lack nothing.

¹⁰The young lions lack and | suffer hunger,

but those who seek the LORD lack nothing |
that is good.

²²The LORD ransoms the life | of his servants,*
and none will be punished who | trust in him.

SECOND READING: 1 John 3:1-3

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ²Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. ³And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

GOSPEL: Matthew 5:1-12

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. ²Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

³"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

⁴"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

⁵"Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

⁶"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

⁷"Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

⁸"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

⁹"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

¹⁰"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

¹¹"Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. ¹²Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

THE PRAYERS

A Surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses, let us bring our prayers before God's throne of grace.

A We give thanks for your church, gracious God, where we hear the gospel of deliverance, experience forgiveness, and taste your goodness. Bless all who lead and all who boldly join in our song of thanksgiving. In your compassion,

C hear us, O God.

A You call blessed what our world scorns: poverty of spirit, sorrow, meekness, righteousness, mercy, purity, and persecution. Give us eyes of faith, that we might see Christ's power at work in weakness. In your compassion, C hear us, O God.
