P Lord God, mercifully receive the prayers of your people. Help us to see and understand the things we ought to do, and give us grace and power to do them; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. C Amen

FIRST READING: Second Kings 5:1-14

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favor with his master, because by him the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy.² Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife.³ She said to her mistress, "If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy."

⁴So Naaman went in and told his lord just what the girl from the land of Israel had said.⁵ And the king of Aram said, "Go then, and I will send along a letter to the king of Israel."

He went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten sets of garments.⁶ He brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, "When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you my servant Naaman, that you may cure him of his leprosy."⁷ When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me."

⁸But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel."⁹ So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house.¹⁰ Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean."¹¹ But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, "I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy!"¹² Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?" He turned and went away in a rage. ¹³But his servants approached and said to him, "Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, 'Wash, and be clean'?" ¹⁴So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.

PSALM: Psalm 30

I will exalt you, O LORD, because you have lift- | ed me up*

and have not let my enemies triumph | over me.

²O LORD my God, I cried | out to you,*
and you restored | me to health.

³You brought me up, O LORD, | from the dead;*
you restored my life as I was going down | to the grave.

⁴Sing to the LORD, you ser- | vants of his;*
give thanks for the remembrance | of his holiness.

⁵For his wrath endures but the twinkling | of an eye,*
his favor | for a lifetime.

⁶Weeping may | spend the night,*
but joy comes | in the morning.

⁷While I felt secure, I said, "I shall never | be disturbed.*"

You, LORD, with your favor, made me as strong | as the mountains."

⁸Then you | hid your face,*

and I was | filled with fear.

⁹I cried to | you, O LORD;*

I pleaded with | the LORD, saying,

¹⁰"What profit is there in my blood, if I go down | to the pit?*

Will the dust praise you or de- | clare your faithfulness?

¹¹Hear, O LORD, and have mer- | cy upon me;*

O LORD, | be my helper."

¹²You have turned my wailing | into dancing;*

you have put off my sackcloth and clothed | me with joy.

¹³Therefore my heart sings to you | without ceasing;*

O LORD my God, I will give you | thanks forever.

SECOND READING: First Corinthians 9:24-27

Do you not know that in a race the runners all compete, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win it. ²⁵Athletes exercise self-control in all things; they do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable one. ²⁶So I do not run aimlessly, nor do I box as though beating the air; ²⁷but I punish my body and enslave it, so that after proclaiming to others I myself should not be disqualified.

+Gospel: Mark 1:40-45

A leper came to [Jesus] begging him, and kneeling he said to him, "If you choose, you can make me clean." ⁴¹Moved with pity, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, and said to him, "I do choose. Be made clean!" ⁴²Immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean. ⁴³After sternly warning him he sent him away at once, ⁴⁴saying to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them." ⁴⁵But he went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the word, so that Jesus could no longer go into a town openly, but stayed out in the country; and people came to him from every quarter.

+Prayers:

A Because we have access to God through faith in Christ Jesus, let us pray with boldness and confidence for the church, the world, and all people in need.

A brief silence.

A Give to your church the will to carry out its commission to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ to all people. Radiant God, let your light shine upon us:

C listen to our cry.

A For the church, that it would be a place of healing for all the baptized and for the outcasts of society, so that the world might see the reconciling power of Christ. Radiant God, let your light shine upon us:

C listen to our cry.

A For the leaders of the nations, that they would be moved to seek peace in every part of the world, so that all people might live in safety and freedom.

Radiant God, let your light shine upon us:

C listen to our cry.

A For those who cry for healing: families in conflict, those who mourn, victims of violence and abuse, and the sick (especially). May they be clothed in joy that they might tell of God's faithfulness. Radiant God, let your light shine upon us:

C listen to our cry.

A For all musicians in our congregation, that they would find delight in proclaiming the good news of Jesus through song and in praising God through music. Radiant God, let your light shine upon us:

C listen to our cry.

A In thanksgiving for all believers who have kept
the faith and received their unfading crowns of glory (especially); may they strengthen us by their witness,
so that we do not continue aimlessly but may one day finish with them in God's presence. Radiant God, let your light shine upon us:

C listen to our cry.

P Into your hands, O Lord, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy, through your Son, the Beloved, Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen
