Jesus Christ our Lord.

FIRST READING: Job 38:1-11

The LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind:

² "Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?

³Gird up your loins like a man,

I will question you, and you shall declare to me.

⁴ "Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?

Tell me, if you have understanding.

⁵Who determined its measurements--surely you know!

Or who stretched the line upon it?

⁶On what were its bases sunk,
or who laid its cornerstone

⁷when the morning stars sang together
and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?

⁸ "Or who shut in the sea with doors
when it burst out from the womb?--

⁹when I made the clouds its garment,
and thick darkness its swaddling band,

¹⁰and prescribed bounds for it,
and set bars and doors,

¹¹and said, 'Thus far shall you come, and no farther,
and here shall your proud waves be stopped!'"

PSALM: Psalm 107:1-3, 23-32

Give thanks to the LORD, for | he is good,*
and his mercy en- | dures forever.

²Let all those whom the LORD has re- | deemed proclaim*

that he redeemed them from the hand of the foe.

³He gathered them out | of the lands;*
from the east and from the west, from the
north and | from the south.

²³Some went down to the | sea in ships*
and plied their trade | in deep waters;

²⁴they beheld the works | of the LORD*
and his wonders | in the deep.

²⁵Then he spoke, and a stormy | wind arose,*
which tossed high the waves | of the sea.

²⁶They mounted up to the heavens and fell back | to the depths;*

their hearts melted because | of their peril.

²⁷They reeled and stag- | gered like drunkards*
and were at | their wits' end.

²⁸Then they cried to the LORD | in their trouble,*
and he delivered them from | their distress.

²⁹He stilled the storm | to a whisper*
and quieted the waves | of the sea.

³⁰Then were they glad because | of the calm,*
and he brought them to the harbor | they were bound for.

³¹Let them give thanks to the LORD | for his mercy*
and the wonders he does | for his children.

³²Let them exalt him in the congregation | of the people*
and praise him in the council | of the elders.

SECOND READING: Second Corinthians 6:1-13

As we work together with him, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. ²For he says,

"At an acceptable time I have listened to you,
and on a day of salvation I have helped you."

See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! ³We are putting no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, ⁴but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, ⁵beatings,
imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights,
hunger; ⁶by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, ⁷truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; ⁸in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; ⁹as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see--we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; ¹⁰as sorrowful,
yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich;
as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

¹¹We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you. ¹²There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours. ¹³In return--I speak
as to children--open wide your hearts also.

+Gospel: Mark 4:35-41

When evening had come, Jesus said to the disciples, "Let us go across to the other side." ³⁶And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. ³⁷A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. ³⁸But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" ³⁹He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. ⁴⁰He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?" ⁴¹And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

+Prayers:

A With the whole people of God in Christ Jesus, let us pray for the church, those in need, and all of God's creation.

A brief silence.

A For people of faith who everywhere hunger for hope, and for all whose callings give evidence of your mercy, that your will may be known and done.

Gracious God,

C hear our prayer.

A For the earth, that the air, water, and soil may be healed from destruction, and that all human thanksgiving for your bounty would increase daily.

Gracious God,

C hear our prayer.

A For peoples of every culture in whose music and food, language and art we see the wide joy of your creative hand. Gracious God,

C hear our prayer.

A For those who wield power without regard for the prisoners and refugees they torment, that these injustices would come to an end. Gracious God,

C hear our prayer.

A For all who are despised, afraid, and vulnerable, that they would be kept from harm and know the lasting freedom that comes from your good news. Gracious God,

C hear our prayer.

A For all who are sick and grieving or whose well-being is on our minds this day (especially). Gracious God,

C hear our prayer.

Here other intercessions may be offered.

A May we (with Philipp Melanchthon and the confessors of Augsburg), and all who have kept the faith in each generation, continue to be embraced by your generous and eternal love. Gracious God,

C hear our prayer.

P Into your hands, O God, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen
