FIRST READING: Proverbs 25:6-7

Do not put yourself forward in the king's presence or stand in the place of the great;

⁷for it is better to be told, "Come up here,"
than to be put lower in the presence of a noble.

PSALM: Psalm 112

Hallelujah! Happy are they who fear the LORD* and have great delight in his commandments!

²Their descendants will be mighty in the land;*
the generation of the upright will be blessed.

³Wealth and riches will be in their house,*
and their righteousness will last forever.

⁴Light shines in the darkness for the upright;*
the righteous are merciful and full of compassion.

⁵It is good for them to be generous in lending*
and to manage their affairs with justice.

⁶For they will never be shaken;*
the righteous will be kept in everlasting remembrance.

⁷They will not be afraid of any evil rumors;*
their heart is right; they put their trust in the LORD.

⁸Their heart is established and will not shrink,*
until they see their desire upon their enemies.

⁹They have given freely to the poor,*
and their righteousness stands fast forever;
they will hold up their head with honor.

¹⁰The wicked will see it and be angry;
they will gnash their teeth and pine away;*
the desires of the wicked will perish.

SECOND READING: Hebrews 13:1-8, 15-16

Let mutual love continue. ²Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. ³Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. ⁴Let marriage be held in honor by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. ⁵Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, "I will never leave you or forsake you." ⁶So we can say with confidence,

"The Lord is my helper;

I will not be afraid.

What can anyone do to me?"

⁷Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. ⁸Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

¹⁵Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. ¹⁶Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

+Gospel: Luke 14:1, 7-14

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely. ⁷When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable. ⁸"When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; ⁹and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, 'Give this person your place,' and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. ¹⁰But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. ¹¹For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

¹²He said also to the one who had invited him, "When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. ¹³But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. ¹⁴And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

+Prayers:

A Confident in God's steadfast love through Jesus Christ and guided by the Holy Spirit, let us pray for the church, the world, and all people according to their needs.

A brief silence.

A That the leaders of the church may serve you and your people with humility and integrity. God of grace,
C let our prayer come before you.

A That all people would honor your gift of creation and strive to preserve its resources for future generations. God of grace,
C let our prayer come before you.

A That all those in prison would be remembered by family and loved ones, and that all the sick (especially) would feel your healing touch. God of grace,
C let our prayer come before you.

A That our congregation would be a place of hospitality, where the stranger is welcomed and the lowly are given a place of honor. God of grace,
C let our prayer come before you.

Here other intercessions may be offered.

A That all who work to improve their lives and those of others, as well as all who cannot find adequate employment, be granted fulfillment in their labor and a just reward for their work. God of grace,
C let our prayer come before you.

P Teach us to pray, O God, and grant to all for whom we pray the good gifts that you have promised, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
C Amen

• NEW WORSHIP SERVICE SCHEDULED
Beginning Sept. 4 at 5:30 p.m. and every Wednesday evening following “Quiet Hour” service of Holy Communion will be celebrated in the sanctuary of St. Peter’s. This will be a spoken word service and will include no hymns. It will last about 30 minutes. The service can replace the Sunday service, especially for any who find the longer service or early hour a burden. It may also provide a blessed respite in the midst of our too busy- or not busy enough- lives.

- On behalf of the Harold W. Hengst College Scholarship Fund, council is pleased to announce that Haylee Weyant and Mariah Monroe have been selected as recipients for the academic year 2013-2014. Haylee and Mariah will share in the awarding of $600.00 thanks to the generosity of Mr. Hengst and a few anonymous pledges. Haylee is studying to be a Medical Assistant at the South Hills School of Business and Technology in Altoona and Mariah will be entering West Virginia University to study Animal and Nutritional Sciences. Good luck to both students. Haylee is the granddaughter of Faye Dellinger and Mariah is the granddaughter of Donna College.
