+Prayer of the Day:

P Merciful God, gracious and benevolent, through your Son you invite all the world to a meal of mercy. Grant that we may eagerly follow his call, and bring us with all your saints into your life of justice and joy, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

C Amen

FIRST READING: Isaiah 1:10-18

Hear the word of the LORD,
you rulers of Sodom!

Listen to the teaching of our God,
you people of Gomorra!

11What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices?
says the LORD;

I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams
and the fat of fed beasts;

I do not delight in the blood of bulls,
or of lambs, or of goats.

12When you come to appear before me,
who asked this from your hand?

Trample my courts no more;

13bringing offerings is futile;
incense is an abomination to me.

New moon and sabbath and calling of convocation—
I cannot endure solemn assemblies with iniquity.

14Your new moons and your appointed festivals
my soul hates;

they have become a burden to me,
I am weary of bearing them.

15When you stretch out your hands,
I will hide my eyes from you;

even though you make many prayers,
I will not listen;

your hands are full of blood.

16Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your doings from before my eyes;
cease to do evil,

17learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow.

18Come now, let us argue it out, says the LORD:
though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be like
snow;

though they are red like crimson,
they shall become like wool.

PSALM: Psalm 32:1-8

1 Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Happy are those to whom the Lord imputes no iniquity,

and in whose spirit there is no deceit.

3 While I kept silence,

my body wasted away through my groaning all day long.

4 For day and night your hand was heavy upon me;

my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer. (Selah)

5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you,

and I did not hide my iniquity;

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord,"

and you forgave the guilt of my sin. (Selah)

6 Therefore let all who are faithful offer prayer to you;

at a time of distress, the rush of mighty waters shall not reach them.

7 You are a hiding place for me; you preserve me from trouble;

you surround me with glad cries of deliverance. (Selah)

SECOND READING: 2 Thessalonians 1:1-4, 11-12

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: ²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of everyone of you for one another is increasing. ⁴Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith during all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring.

¹¹To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfill by his power every good resolve and work of faith, ¹²so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

+GOSPEL: Luke 19:1-10

[Jesus] entered Jericho and was passing through it. ²A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. ³He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. ⁴So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. ⁵When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." ⁶So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. ⁷All who saw it began to grumble and said, "He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner."

⁸Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much." ⁹Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost."

+Prayers:

A Remembering God's marvelous work and living in hope, let us pray for the church, the world, and all people according to their needs.

A brief silence.

A Ignite your church to proclaim your message of repentance and forgiveness to everyone, and stir up its zeal to seek out and save the lost. Lord, in your mercy,
C hear our prayer.

A Turn the hearts of all nations to seek justice, to rescue the oppressed, to defend those who are orphaned or widowed. Lord, in your mercy,
C hear our prayer.

A Give wisdom to the citizens of the United States as they approach this week's elections, that they may be encouraged to participate, and may vote with an eye to the welfare of all the earth and its people. Lord, in your mercy,
C hear our prayer.

A Strengthen the faith of all those who suffer persecution for confessing the name of Jesus Christ and bring an end to their suffering. Lord, in your mercy,
C hear our prayer.

A Deliver from despair those burdened by their sins and assure them of your salvation. Lord, in your mercy,
C hear our prayer.

A Comfort and heal those who are dying or sick (especially), and make your presence known to them in times of trouble. Lord, in your mercy,
C hear our prayer.

A Awaken in this congregation the desire to welcome as your guest the outsider whom we fear or hate, and increase our love for one another. Lord, in your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

Here other intercessions may be offered.

A We give thanks to you, O God, for those whom you made worthy of your calling, especially (names, and) Martin Luther, renewer of the church. Make our faith grow in abundance so that the name of the Lord Jesus may be glorified in us until we offer the full and perfect praise with all your saints in heaven. Lord, in your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

P God of faithfulness, encircled in your lovingkindness, we lift up to you all in need. Hear our prayers on behalf of others and sustain us as we await the coming of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, in whose name we pray.

C Amen
